

5. What does the New Testament say about 'One People, One Land, One God?'

'Christian Zionism ... Enraptured Around a Golden Calf' pits the Holy Trinity of Zionism – One People, One Land, One God – against the Holy Trinity of Christianity – ALL people, ALL nations, One God. The New Testament 'in-gathers' and redeems ALL people, not just one tribe; ALL the nations, not just one state; indeed, glorifying the ONE 'I Am' with Many Names – in Hebrew: Hayah asher hayah, 'I Will Be Who or How or Where I Will Be' or just Eloah; or, in the Arabic sound-alike, Allah.

Our New Covenant 1) frees Modern Jews from their Jews-only, ancestry-ghetto-mentality; 2) renounces Modern Israel's obsession for possession of a Land once promised and fulfilled; and, 3) refutes the Israeli edict: "What is mine is mine, what is yours is mine also."

'Christian Zionism ... Enraptured Around the Golden Calf' aspires to gently hammer Christians into fully embracing the Good News. Many Evangelicals unwittingly side line the Gospel's stance on the Promised Land by replacing the Promised Land with Modern Israel. Modern Israel is NOT the Promised Land. The Promised Land is the Spiritual Kingdom of God, a Land without borders. Where is the Promised Land? Wherever God is! God will never again reside inside an edifice made of stone. God, in the form of God's Holy Spirit, dwells inside each and every believer; individual temples of human flesh, created in His own image; His own gems, more precious than stone.

Today's Israeli modus operandi defies the teachings of Jesus and His disciples. The issue of who has a right to live in Palestine is predicated neither on a forged ancient biblical claim nor on a posited conflict purportedly spanning thousands of years. If there were an authentic prophetic link connecting Modern Israel to Ancient Israel, Jesus Christ, God in the flesh, would have foreshadowed this revelation.

The New Testament unambiguously calls Christians to be Christian. Isn't witnessing Christ the prime directive, the Christian call – the walk, not the talk; and why should Evangelicals not embrace Muslims? Seeking justice for ALL, reinforced with Christian compassion, is 'Christian.'

Love Israel-Palestine! We're brothers and sisters.
